

This is regarding our No-Call law in Wisconsin. Please see to it that the laws that we write for our state are respected. The Banking industry apparently believes their financial power and influence are sufficient to override the will of the citizens. I hope the FCC's integrity is of a higher quality than that of the money lender community.

Thank you.